

International Scientific Conference

Towards Prevention Treatment and Cure of Anaphylaxis

11 November 2008
L34, 500 Bourke Street Melbourne

Scientific Program

8.45am

Registration

9.15am

Opening: to be advised

9:30am - 9.40am

INTRODUCTION: David Hill

PREVENTION OF FOOD ALLERGY(1)

9:40am - 10:05am

Europevall: preliminary data from the birth cohort.
Dr Kirsten Beyer, University Hospital Charite, Berlin

10:05am - 10.10am

Discussion

10.10am - 10:25am

International /Australian Infant Feeding Guidelines
Dr Ralph Heine, Royal Childrens Hospital, Melbourne

10.25am - 10.30am

Discussion

10.30am - 10:50am

Early vs late introduction of foods.
Prof Sue Prescott, Princess Margaret Hospital for Children, Perth

10:50am - 11:00am

Discussion

11:00am - 11:20am

Morning Tea

PLENARY LECTURES

11:20am - 11.50am

The Management of Food Anaphylaxis in 2008.
Dr Hugh Sampson, Mt Sinai School of Medicine, New York

11.50am - 12.05pm

Discussion

12.05pm - 12.35pm

The LEAP study.
Prof. Gideon Lack, Kings College, London

12.35pm - 12.50pm

Discussion

12:50pm - 1:45pm

Lunch

PREVENTION AND TREATMENT OF FOOD ALLERGY(2)

1:45pm - 1:55pm

Health Nuts: preliminary data.
Assoc. Prof. Katie Allen, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Melbourne

1:55pm - 2.00pm

Discussion

2:00pm - 2:15pm

Treating peanut allergy: Oral immunotherapy and probiotics.
Assoc Prof Mimi Tang, Royal Children's Hospital Melbourne

2:15pm - 2.20pm

Discussion

2:20pm - 2:40pm

Peanut vaccine – an update.
Prof Robyn O'Hehir, The Alfred Hospital, Melbourne

2:40pm - 2.45pm

Discussion

2:45pm - 3:05pm

Oral Immunotherapy: the American experience.
Dr Wesley Burks, Duke University Medical Centre

3:05pm - 3:25pm

Oral Immunotherapy: the European experience.
Dr Kirsten Beyer, University Hospital Charite, Berlin

3:25pm - 4:00pm

Discussion

4:00pm - 4:20pm

Afternoon tea

4:20pm - 4:40pm

Genetics and Pathophysiology of Anaphylaxis.
Dr Wesley Burks, Duke University Medical Centre

4:40pm - 4:50pm

Discussion

4:50pm - 5:10pm

DEBATE: Epipens are over-prescribed. Pro – Prof Andrew Kemp, Westmead Hospital, Sydney.
Con–Assoc. Prof Katie Allen, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute Melbourne

5:10pm - 5:20pm

Debaters to answer statements and questions from the floor

5:20pm

Thanks from David Hill,

5:30pm

Close

Proudly Supported By

National Australia Bank

Victorian Department of Human Services

Victorian Department of Education and Early Childhood Development

www.ilhanfoundation.org.au

